Diary No. 2723	Enclos.	Spare Copies.	Serial No. 16

BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER.

State that the person proposed by Messrs. Scott for the post of Manager appears to them to be too expensive that the Company under the present condition of its earning power cannot afford the expense & that they are on the look out for a competent person for that post.

NOTES AND ORDERS.

The Secretary remarks that the file on the subject has been submitted to the Deputy Saheb. But the reference seems uncalled for as the agents were not asked officially to supply the point.

Bangalore, 6 January 1905

To The Chief Secretary
The Govt of His Highness
The Maharaja of Mysore,
Bangalore

Sir

With reference to the letter from Mr Scott to the address of the Dewan & of which you were good enough to give our Mr Narayanrow a perusal we have the honor to say that the person proposed by Mr Scott for the post of the Manager here appears to us to be too expensive & that the Company under the present condition of its earning power cannot afford the expense. The appointment of a Manager is necessary & we are on the lookout for a competent person for that post.

We have the honor to be Sir,
